To Remember!

'Two Peas In A Pod'

If you saw one, you saw the other
Not only was she my only sister,
But my best friend, my children's Granny as well as their Aunt,
And their second Mom.
We had a bond called LOVE,
And that kept us together.
I thank God for the years we have shared;
all the good memories will never be forgotten;
The laughter, tears, joking,
there was never a dull moment.
I thank God for the strength he gave me to care for you during your illness,
I have no regrets or sorry.
I would do it all over again with a smile.

The Bridge To Home

There is a bridge that takes us home
That we cannot walk around
When we see God's outstretched hand
We know we're homeward bound.
We must not grieve, when loved ones leave us,
Only God knows best.
When our work on earth is done
We must cross the bridge to rest.

~HEAVEN SENT~

We cried when you passed away
We still cry today
God saw you getting tired
So He put his around you
And whispered "Come with me"
Death leaves a heartache no one can heal
Love leaves a memory no one can steal
With tears in my eyes
I'm here one last time to say good-bye
If love could have saved you
You never would have died
You were more than an Aunt
More like a second Mom.

At Heaven's Gates The hardest part, is always today

Saying a final goodbye, as we all walk areas

Saying a madering why, this had to come Wondering why, this had to come as we try to under stand But we have to thank God for being God And not trusting man With your presence, you made us smile and provided laughter And as we sit and reminisce. without you, we start a new chapter. Memories made with you each summer on Simmons Street itting under the tree and never being discret And since you are Heaven sent, we must accept the fate, for we will soon meet again 0 'At Heaven's Gates' Cooperat Kiera Henderis
