

Order of Service

Saturday, January 6, 2018
1:00PM
Pilgrim Rest Missionary Baptist Church
33 Lewis Avenue
Lexington, Tennessee 38351
Reverend Rodney Campbell, Eulogist

Processional.....Family Viewing

Scripture

Old Testament.....Pulpit

New Testament.....Calvin Young

Prayer..... Pulpit

Song..... Thomas Mitchell

Words of Comfort.....As a Police Officer.....Chief Roger Loftin

As a Security Guard.....Joe. T Wood

As a Family Man.....Anthony Williams

Song... ..Steve Mayo

Remarks..... Louisville, KY Children

Obituary..... Read Silently

Resolution and Acknowledgements

Song

Words of Encouragement..... Rev. Anthony Gordon

Eulogy..... Rev. Rodney Campbell

Recessional

Acknowledgements

The family of L.C. Harmon Sr. would like to thank everyone who called, prayed, brought food, visited, or shared words of comfort. We would like to send special thanks to Davita Dialysis Clinic, his heart and kidney specialists. We'd like to also thank the Lexington Police Department for their acts of generosity during this time.

Pallbearers

Adarius Ellis
Carl Lee Houghton
Brian Webb

Terrance Pearson
Lynn Houghton
Tony Raspberry

Honorary Pallbearers

James M. Reese II
Alton Anderson
Montonius Dudley

Danny Mcclerking
Calvin Young
Edward Griffin

Floral Attendants

Jessica Moffitt
Tanisha Pearson
Pansy Mickens

Jennifer Milton
Chasity Clark-Lambert
Teresa Pearson

Interment

Lexington Cemetery

Repast

Pilgrim Rest Missionary Baptist Church
Fellowship Hall

Arrangements Entrusted to:

Hardeman County Funeral Services, INC
109 S. Porter St.
Bolivar, TN 38008
731-658-7473

Printing By Jada 901-327-4433

Celebration Of Life

*L.C.
Harmon Sr.*

Sunrise
July 17, 1935

Sunset
January 2, 2018

Obituary

A Time to Be Born

L.C. Harmon was born on July 17, 1935 to the late Willie B. and Nettie Mae Harmon. He was the eldest of 10 children. At an early age he professed his hope in Jesus Christ and accepted Him into his heart as Lord and Savior. He worshiped at Mt. Tabor United Methodist Church of Juno, Tennessee and joined Bible Hill MBC. Later in life he worshiped at Pilgrim Rest MBC.

A Time to Labor

L.C. was educated in Harmon Grove School of Juno and Montgomery School of Lexington. As a teen he enlisted into the United States Army. There he served in Germany and Korea and ranked as Staff Sergeant. After he discharged he lived in various states and had several professions including taxi driver and sanitation worker.

In 1971 he returned to Tennessee. He earned his GED and enrolled into the Tennessee Law Enforcement Training Academy. After graduating he became more than a man, he became a living "legend". L.C. was the first African American police officer with rank at the Lexington Police Department. During his tenure he was promoted to Sergeant, to Investigator, and then to Lieutenant. He took pride in serving and protecting the community for 22 years until he retired.

A Time to Reflect

After a few years of retirement, he felt compelled to serve and protect again. This time instead of patrolling the streets, he patrolled the hallways of Paul G. Caywood Elementary School, where he won the hearts of everyone who encountered him. He became every child's hero continuing his legacy of being a great man.

Outside of his career in law enforcement he pursued other interests. In the late 80's he had a brief but successful BBQ business with his friend Anthony Buck. The two would later coach their sons in the Jackson Boxing League. During this time, he joined St. John Lodge. The highlight of his career was his running for the Henderson County Sheriff and although he did not win, he was the most qualified candidate on the ticket.

A Time to Remember

On January 2, 2018, God called L.C. Harmon, Sr. home. He was preceded in death by his parents, his sisters Joyce Marie Carver, Nola Catherine Campbell, his daughter Cherkeetha Williams, his son LeSander Harmon and one great grandson, TeRonnie Cook Jr. He leaves to cherish his memory, his devoted wife of 45 years, Linda Hines Harmon, sons, L.C. Harmon Jr. (Madelyn) of Los Angeles, CA, Terry Harmon (Marlene) of Oklahoma City, OK and Damon Dudley-Harmon of Louisville, KY; daughters, Sophia Harmon of Columbus, MS, Crystal B. Harmon of Lexington, TN, Rotha Harmon, Lexington, KY, Sharon Harmon, Lancaster, CA, Teresa Dudley-Harmon, Dana Harmon-Young (Calvin), Nicole Harmon-Griffin (Edward), all of Louisville, KY, his sisters Evelyn Washington and Geneva Harmon both of Lexington, TN, Glenda Harmon of Chicago, IL, and Vera Harmon of Detroit, MI, brothers Leo Harmon, Leon Harmon and Larry Harmon all of Chicago, IL, and one sister-in-law Eva Hines of Nashville, TN, a special friend James M. Reese II, a special cousin Robert L. Seats, and an adopted granddaughter, Paula Campbell, 16 grandchildren, 22 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.*

I took His hand when I heard Him call,

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I've savored much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your hearts and share with me,

God wanted me now; HE SET ME FREE!

