WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me
I wish you wouldn't cry
The Way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say
I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too
When tomorrow starts with out me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand
The angel said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I Dearly Love
But When I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne
He said This Is Eternity
And All I promised you
Today for life on earth is done
But Here it starts a new
I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And Since each day's the exact same way
There is no longing for the past
So When Tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart*

Reflections Of Life

On late Saturday night, February 17, 2018, Mother Olivia Wolfe Carter departed this life at Baptist Reynolds Hospice House in Collierville, Tn. to be with the Lord. Olivia Wolfe Carter was born August 4, 1938 to the late Aaron Wolfe Jr. and the late Lillie B. Richardson.

She was united in the Holy Matrimony to William Roosevelt Carter on December 31, 1957 and from this union seven children were born even though her husband William passed away December 31, 1980, she continued to work very hard to raise her children. Two children preceded her in death Gwendolyn Carter Williams and Stephony Carter Beard and one granddaughter Tiera Delois Carter.

She accepted Christ at an early age and joined Evertte Chapel Church. Upon marriage she joined Pleasant Hill and then later joined Mt. Salem where she was faithful member until death. Throughout her life she served her church faithfully as a choir president and Mother Board. She was very active and loyal to her church family. She was dedicated to God, her church, and her family. She truly loved singing songs like "Eternal Life", "Serving the Lord Will Payoff" and "I Know the Lord Will Make Away". She worked hard her entire life. She loved working and retired from Sequentia in 2004 after 29 years of perfect attendance. Her hobbies included sewing, collecting cookbooks, cooking, coloring, ordering from catalogs, watching westerns, gameshows, "Young and the Restless". She was well known for her great hospitality and her "beautiful attire."
