Reflections Of Life

1959-2018

Jeannette Ann McClellan Fentress was born July 20, 1959 to the late Estelle Williams McClellan and the late Pruitt McClellan. She was educated in the Hardeman County School System. Jeanette accepted Christ at an early age and joined the Mays Hill M. B. Church in Hickory Valley. She later re-dedicated her life to God and joined Truth and Life Baptist Church under Rev. Carey Jackson. She remained a faithful and dedicated member until God called her home.

One sister, Delois Annita McClellan, preceded her in death. Jeannette leaves to cherish many precious memories a kind, loving, committed husband, John Fentress, who has been by her side since they were teenagers. One daughter, Katrina McClellan; one son, Kevin McClellan; two Sisters, one who everyone thought was her twin, Joann (Larry) Morgan and Margie (Abe) Jones. Six brothers: Larry (Teresa) Williams, Mike (Lovell) McClellan, Terry McClellan, Gregory McClellan, William David McClellan, Pruitt Jr. (Martha) Wilkes; ten grandchildren, two of whom she raised as her own: Kejuan Wilkes and Quindarius Peoples; One great grandchild, Serenity Woods, preceded her in death; a mother-in-law, Minnie Fentress, a host of brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Grandma,

The words you spoke so wisely; Have never been so clear.
All the lessons that you taught us still remain right there.
We are left here wishing to hear your voice one last time,
Once more to hear you sing; That we are your sunshine
You told us it would be all right, But we feel that isn't true.
The only thing to make this better is if we was there with you
We know this isn't possible, But it's hard to think it so.
We know you're now not suffering, But we hate to see you go.
We know the pain will slowly leave, And your memories will stay,
Your time with us was special, And it is often replayed,
Our sunshine was taken, Now our skies are left grey.
Oh, the things that I would give For only one more day.
You were more than just our grandma, You were our best friend.
Our life has changed forever. But we will still love you 'til the end.

Love Always, Your Grandchildren

My Dear Sister

My heart is so heavy with hurt and pain. God loved you so much that I know an Angel he gained. We talked each day over and over again. We shared so many sleepless nights. I would always tell you to call me if you are up late at night or early morning hours and you told me to do the same. Even though I miss you so much and it is hard to go on without you, I know you are now at rest. No more suffering, no more pain, no worries, no disappointments. I will always love you and precious memories will linger on.
