Obituary

Orlanda Amos was born March 16, 1965 to the late Z T and Fairlee Amos. She was the youngest of six children.

She was known for her love of others and always lending a helping hand to anyone she could.

She became a member of the church at an early age and was a member of the Forrest Hill Church of Christ until her death. She had such a great love for her church family.

Orlanda graduated from McNairy Central High School in 1984 and also attended Freed Hardeman College for two years. She had various jobs that she enjoyed and made so many friends.

Left to cherish her memories is her special fur baby GiGi. She loved her baby girl with all her heart. Four sisters: Vonnella (Clarence) Borner, Viennese Yarbrough and friend Larry Swift, Khogie (Alvin) Walls, Novena (Earl) Wyke and one brother Serfin Amos, one special aunt, Billie Sue Luster of Jackson, TN, and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends.

To The Friends I've Left

Dear Friends I go, but do not weep
I've lived my life, so full and deep.

Throughout my life, I've given my best, I've earned my keep, I've earned my rest, I've never tried to be great or grand, I've tried to be a helping hand.

If I helped any team, I've helped on my own, it was more than repaid by good friends and family I've known; and if I went the extra mile, I did it with pleasure, it was all worthwhile.

If I brightened your path, then let it be, a small contribution from my loved ones and me. Now sadly I leave you and traveled alone, through a majestic veil to the great unknown.

With such beautiful memories, that will forever be, the way I hope you will remember me.
