God saw the road was getting rough.

The hills were hard to climb.

He gently closed those lovely eyes,

And whispered "Peace Be Mine"

The weary hours, the days of pain,

The sleepless nights are passed.

The ever present worn out frame,

Has found sweet rest at last.

In God's eternal home, where there is no pain nor sorrow

We hope to see your loving face,

In that peaceful never-ending tomorrow.

Acknowledgements

We the family of Albert Jenkins, were blessed with our love one for fifty-eight years. But as God saw best, his last day on this earth with us was a day of healing from all his sickness and pain. Our hearts were broken because it was so hard to let go. Grief is an expression of love and beneath it all is unshakeable joy, because we know our loved one is in a better place. With love, prayers, and support of family and caring friends, we are able to let go with gratitude and a smile. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we "Thank You" so much. We are forever grateful to each of you. May God richly bless you and continue to keep you in his loving care.
