Life Reflections

Linda L. Brown was born on September 26, 1953, in Trenton, Tennessee to James Leslie Brown and Peggy Alma Ruth Brown. She departed this life on October 11, 2023.

Linda attended Atwood High School in Carroll for 9th and 10th grade, but her 11th and 12th grade years she moved to Decaturville, Tennessee, where she resided with her great aunt and uncle, the late Lucindia and Brown Pritchard. She attended Riverside High School, where she graduated. Afterwards she moved back to Gibson County in Milan, Tennessee until God called her home. Linda was employed with Milan Shirt Factory for over 20 years.

Linda was true born-again Christian, she received God in her life at a very early age and never looked back. She loved and touched so many people's lives.

Linda is preceded in death by her parents, James Leslie & Peggy Alma Ruth Brown; two sisters, Dora Nance and Donna Brown; three brothers, Leslie (Rusty) Brown, Roy (Nick) Brown and Jerry (Deeie) Brown. Linda leaves to cherish her memories; her loving son, John Allen Brown, Nashville, Tennessee; three sisters, Evelyn (Larry) Wilkes, Trenton, Tennessee, Sonja Brown and Eva Brown, Humboldt, Tennessee; a devoted friend, sister, Linda Hart; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, Goddaughters and family, and church members.

Recessional

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not for long. And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that once we shared. Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey we must all take, and each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know,
Laugh at all the things we used to do.
Miss me but let me go.
